

The Quinnipiac University School of Business International Guest Lecture Series

Presents

“Central Europe Today: The After-Life of Communists”

Lecture by Dr. Géza Jeszenszky

On August 29, 2006

6:00 pm to 8:00 pm

Mancheski Seminar Room
(School of Business Bldg.)

Dr. Jeszenszky was Foreign Minister of Hungary from 1990–1994, Member of Parliament 1994–1998, and Hungarian Ambassador to the United States 1998–2002. He is currently a professor at the Corvinus University in Budapest and lectures at the College of Europe, Warsaw Campus, Poland and the Babes-Bolyai University, Cluj/Kolozsvár, Romania.

Seating is limited!

RSVP by August 22, 2006 to Leslie Hunter at leslie.hunter@quinnipiac.edu

Visitor parking available in front of the School of Business.

Event sponsored by
QU School of Business
QU Office of International Education
QU European Union Business Studies Minor

In conjunction with the World Affairs Council of Connecticut