High Quality Lectures and Cultural Visits

We will enjoy lectures on Hungarian history and regional politics from the former Foreign Minister of Hungary. We will receive a VIP tour through Parliament and have a private meeting with the Chairman of the Foreign Affairs Committee. We will visit the Hungarian Central Bank and have a private lecture on international economics and finance from a member of their Board of Governors and former VP of the IMF. We will visit the US Embassy and receive lectures from the Commercial Affairs Officers. We will visit castles, museums, see a play in the opera house, and have a free weekend for you to travel in Hungary or into neighboring countries and cities like Vienna, Prague, or Bratislava.

Networking Event at Zebegeny

One full day is devoted to a private networking event at a private estate where QU students spend the day with executives from the region while lounging by the pool, playing tennis, and enjoying good conversation, Hungarian food and wine.

2009 Attendees include (but is not limited to): Chairman of E.ON, Director of Morgan Stanley, Owner of LightTech, former Chairman of MOL, Owner of Helikon Publishing, CEO of Dijbeszedo, Owner of AMCO, Executive from Deloitte Hungary, former Chairman of the Hungarian Central Bank, US Embassy Cultural Affairs Attache, strategic advisor to MOL, author and columnist from Hungary's leading news magazine and others.
